A Few Facts

To Ponder Over.

No merchant whose expenses are large can sell goods at a small profit. We do most our work ourselves, buy our goods from the best houses in the city, and best of all, content ourselves with the lowest margin of profit.

Our New Fall Goods

Are in and our store is crowded with Bargains for everybody.

We buy your produce, pay the highest price for it, and believe we can save you money on anything that can be obtained in a first-class

GENERAL STORE.

Come to see us, we take as much pleasure in showing you our goods as some merchants do in selling you.

Beggars were never more numerous in towns throughout the State.

A new hotel and Opera House will be erected at Lancaster at a cost of $17,000.

Over fifty thousand rabbits were shipped out of Pendleton county this season.

Owenton capitalists will likely build an electric road from that place to Carrollton on the Ohio river.

A man snored so soundly in court at Covington, the other day, that the judge gave him 30 days for contempt of court.

By the death of a bachelor uncle Mrs. Henry Cartwright, of Lexington, falls heir to something like $15,000.

At Ingram, Belle county, Will Green shot Dunmore Hill to death in a fight which grew out of a dispute over 10 cents.

Henry Richmond, aged 110 years, and, most probably the oldest man in the State, was reported the first of the week to be dying.

Hon. John W. Feland, one of the best known politicians in the State, died at his home in Hopkinsville of the Grip, after a short illness.

Jesse Burdette, a fireman, on the coal road running from Mt. Sterling to Rothwell, fell from his train and was run over by several loaded cars and instantly killed.

Permella Elliott, colored, is in jail at London awaiting trial for causing her infant's death by hiding it near East Bernstadt. She says she did it to hide her shame.

The man who shot and killed Provost Guard Denton at Columbus, Ga., was Robert Hoskins, a member of Company E. Third Kentucky. In his flight his overcoat caught in a barb wire fence and he discarded it. Hoskins escaped, and is supposed to have gone to the Kentucky mountains.

A war on blind tigers is being waged at Mayfield by the court, assisted by the preachers. During the holidays there were scores of young boys drunk on the streets, which caused the united efforts to run the tigers down.

The penitentiary commissioners have leased the labor of six hundred and fifty convicts at forty cents per day to the firm of Martin & Co., who will run the chair factory in the penitentiary. The State will feed, clothe and guard the convicts.

Three prominent men of Bowling Green went up the river in a boat on the hunt of wild geese, on their return their boat capsized and all were thrown out into the river and were forced to remain in the water all night and came near freezing to death.

It has been announced that the offer made some time ago by Dr. D. K. Pearson, of Chicago, to give $150,000 for the endowment of Berea College, if trustees would raise $150,000 by December 31, 1898, has been made binding by the fulfillment of the condition.

Mrs. Nancy Sharp, wife of Squire John Sharp, of Plum Lick Precinct in Bourbon county, who was a witness in the Utterback trial at Paris, testified that for more than 50 years she has resided within 12 miles of Paris and within a few miles of Carlisle, yet, until she went to Paris to testify in the trial, she had never seen a railroad, nor had she ever been on a train. She is now past 70 years of age.

Every town has a liar or two; a smart Aleck; some pretty girls; more loafers than it needs; a woman or two that tattles; an old foggy that the town would be better off without; men who stand on the street corners and make remarks about women; the man who laughs an idiotic laugh every time he says anything; scores of men with the caboose of their trousers worn smooth as glass; men who can tell you about how the war question should be settled, the weather and how to run other people's business, but who have made a dismal failure of their own.

The man may safely venture on his way, who is so guided that he cannot stray.

When a young man is sowing his wild oats he always hopes that something will happen to destroy the crop.

It is said that a burned child dreads the fire. Probably that's why a newly married man tries to avoid his old flames.

Marriage will change a woman's name, but it seldom changes her nature.

A man may learn from his Bible to be a more thorough gentleman than if he had been brought up in all the drawing rooms in Paris.

Without a Parallel.

Prof B. F. Evans, the well known school teacher, tells the Climax of some remarkable occurrences in his thirty years career as a teacher which takes the rag off the bush. He has taught 1400 children, in thirty years, in thirty school houses. He has taught in the same school, children of the following names:

Shorts and Longs Goins and Cummins, Hagans and Ragans, Coys and Molloyes, Dawes and Ross, Calicos and Cottons, Whites and Blacks, Sweets and Sowers.—Richmond Climax.

When saloon keepers themselves refuse to go to the polls and vote for whisky, as did one at Monticello, at the recent election, little room for doubt is left about the ultimate victory for the dries in all smaller towns. Fred Willis is the name of the Monticello saloonist, who got enough of the business in less than eight months. When asked why he did not vote he said: "I would have voted against saloons if I had voted at all which would have placed me in a most inconsistent attitude."—Stanford Journal.

The Atlanta Constitution very sensibly remarks: "A man, young or old, with a pistol in his hip pocket, has already advertised the fact that he is anxious to murder somebody, and the law should deal with him accordingly." How would it do to make a law prohibiting hip pockets? Or better, how would it do to kill these red-eyed fools while they are squabs? Then they could not possibly blossom into murderers.—Exchange.

Mrs. Edith Mize had a public sale Monday and sold a lot of household goods, farming implements, two horses and a milch cow. Every thing sold at fair prices.

Iron Mound.

We had several days of cold weather the first of the week.

Aunt Martha Jordan has been quite sick for several days, but is better at this time.

Cyrus Elkin and father drove from this neighborhood last week 130 turkeys for which they paid 6 and 6½ cents per pound.

Born, Jan. 2, 1899, to the wife of J. S. Stephens a bouncing boy who has been christened Henry Shipton Stephens. Jim is all smiles and mother and child are doing well.

Died, at his residence, near this place Jan. 2nd 1899, Uncle Ezekiel Puckett. Deceased was well known throughout the county as a good citizen, had many friends, and was well thought of. His bereaved family will have the sympathy of the community at large. His death was quite singular, he not complaining of anything except a slight pain in one of his ankles. He only lasted about 15 minutes after the pain that killed him set up in his ankle. I. M. D.

Wants $2,500 Damages.

Suit has been filed in the Madison Circuit Court for $2,500 for defamation of character by J. P. Grinstead, member of the Byetown school board against Irvine Scrivener, James Bowman, and T. P. Dudley. The suit is the outgrowth of an effort on the part of these three to oust Grinstead from the board on the grounds of malfeasance in office. Grinstead was acquitted of the charge, hence the suit.

A man doesn't necessarily have to wait until he is forty to become a fool or a physician.

New Railroad

Articles of incorporation of the West Virginia & Kentucky railroad were filed at Frankfort. The line is to be a coal road eight miles long, beginning in Mingo county, West Virginia, and is to run into Pike county, Kentucky.

Provides a Monument.

Chas. D. Jacobs ex-Mayor of Louisville, who died on Christmas day, provided in his will for the erection of a monument to cost $25,000 in honor of his son, Chas. D. Jacobs, Jr., who was killed in the battle before Santiago, while relieving a suffering comrade.

Confessed His Guilt.

At Mundfordville Rev. Gregory Doyle, charged with seduction and complicity in the murder of Miss Lydia Bracher, went on the witness stand and confessed the whole affair. He admitted that he secured Prof. McClure to perform an operation but claimed the latter induced him to consent to it by assuring him that there was no danger. The confession created great excitement.

Opposed to pensions.

The Confederate Veterans' Association of Kentucky has put itself on record as being opposed to Senator Butler's resolution to pension ex-Confederate soldiers. At its quarterly meeting in Louisville Tuesday night there was a great deal of discussion upon a resolution objecting to the plan of the President to have the Confederate cemeteries preserved and maintained by the Federal Government. The resolution was not adopted.

Must not Read His Local Paper.

A Jessamine county hunter, not knowing the bird law had expired, exposed 30 quail for sale at Nicholasville one day last week for which he was arrested and fined $5 per quail or $150 in all.

The Court of Appeals rendered a decision holding habitual criminal act valid. A suit to test it was brought by Ben Herndon, sentenced to life imprisonment from Fayette county on the ground of a third conviction. Herndon's attorneys fought the constitutionality of the law on the grounds that it violates the constitutional guarantee that neither life nor liberty shall be twice put in jeopardy for the same offense.

W. T. Goodwin, ex-postmaster of Bagdad, was sentenced to six months imprisonment and to pay a fine of $137 50 for embezzling postoffice funds.

Twenty-eight persons over seventy years of age died in Georgetown last year. The average age was 80 and the aggregate was 2,242 years.

Fifteen members of the First Kentucky Volunteer Infantry, who were left in Porto Rico on account of illness, have reached this country.

Geo. P. Webber, member of the Kentucky Legislature during the Civil war, died in New York Wednesday. It was his vote in the State Legislature at that time which kept the State in the Union.

The grand jury at Frankfort returned indictments Wednesday against 101 insurance companies and various members of the Kentucky & Tennessee Board of Fire Underwriters, charging them with a combination to fix rates. The State Fiscal Court assessed fines of $1,000 each against the Cumberland Telegraph & Telephone Company, Louisville and Jeffersonville Bridge Co. and Hopkinsville Water Co. for failing to make reports to the Auditor.

A Bit of Philosophy.

Somebody says: One reason why so many girls—and boys—men and women, too—are uninteresting—common—is because nearly everybody tries so hard to be like somebody else rather than to be content to remain himself or herself in life. In nature you don't see an oak tree posing as a willow, or a black duck as a yellow leg, or a horse as a cow, or a lily as a rose, or a lilac as a pony, or a dog as a cat. Be natural and you'll be all right. Many a girl, without the talent for music, is ruining a piano who should be making bonnets or bread; many a boy is studying for a learned profession whose proper sphere is in the machine shop or the mill; many a man is splitting up churches who ought to be doing good service in some institution of learning teaching, or on some farm farming, and many a woman is trying to be, in vain, a society leader when she could be a model housewife in her own home. Of the human flowers how few successfully bloom!—Exchange.

ARE YOU A DEMOCRAT?

An old adage reads: "There is a place for everything," and for everything to be in its place, the LOUISVILLE DISPATCH should find a place in the home of every DEMOCRAT in the SUNNY SOUTH. The Dispatch is the people's paper, owned by the people, and is always ready to fight for the cause of the people. IT STANDS SQUARELY ON THE CHICAGO PLATFORM, without the aid or consent of the Gold Bug Monopolies, and a fair comparison of its news service (now being furnished over leased wires by the New York Sun, the Chicago Inter Ocean and the Northern Press Association) with that of any other paper, will fully verify its motto, "If you see it in the Dispatch it's so, and if it's so it is always in the Dispatch."

The Dispatch also has a staff of over 300 active correspondents in the South, and will POSITIVELY GUARANTEE MORE THAN DOUBLE THE SOUTHERN NEWS of any other Louisville paper. Get the Dispatch; it gives the news and tells the truth about it.

Daily, 8 pages; Sunday, 24 pages; Weekly, 8 pages. We club with the Weekly Dispatch at the remarkably low price of 75 Cents.

LOCAL BREVITIES.

D. McKinney went to Irvine Thursday on business.

J. W. Dawson went to Winchester with produce this week.

Lagrippe is claiming many victims throughout the State.

There are thirty divorce cases on the Richmond Circuit Court docket.

Most all the banks in the State are decreasing their capital stock.

Mt. Sterling Circuit Court convenes Monday with 350 cases on docket.

Deputy Sheriff C. T. Grinstead was in the burg Wednesday on business.

R. S. Christopher attended the Devary-Elkin wedding at Virden this week and served as best man.

Mrs. Florinda Spry, wife of Joseph Spry, Esq., is very sick and doubts of her recovery are entertained.

The people are beginning to learn that the TIMES is here to stay and they are going to patronize it.

We have recently had some very favorable weather for the grippe, which is quite prevalent everywhere.

Wm. F. McIntosh, a leading citizen of the Sams neighborhood, was transacting business in the village Tuesday.

Richard McKinney, of Union Hall, was in the burg Tuesday and renewed his subscription to the TIMES.

There are several cases of lagrippe in the country. There 100,000 cases, estimated, in the city of Cincinnati.

Rain, Rain. It seems as if it will never quit. A large tide is now in the river which is appreciated by timber men in the mountains.

When in need of Job Printing don't forget that this is the only place to have it done in Estill, Lee or Powell counties, charges most reasonable.

The young people of College Hill have organized a dramatic club and are now rehearsing with a view of giving a series of entertainments.

Woodie Heflin, of Olive Hill, has been visiting his father, L. B. Heflin, of Snow Creek, and his brother, W. E. Heflin, of this place this week.

Notwithstanding the unfavorable condition of the weather, the prospects for a good crop of wheat is encouraging all over the State.

When in the burg don't forget to drop in and see J. W. Henry, the photographer. He is now prepared to make your photo and will shortly show a nice stock of frames.

In this issue appears the advertisement of W. H. Hoshal & Co., Commission Merchants, Cincinnati, Ohio. We hope our shippers will not forget this firm when shipping live stock of any kind.

Elsewhere in this issue will be seen the advertisement of W. J. Christopher. Mr. Christopher is a live merchant and will make his extremely low prices in the future sell his goods. Bear this in mind when you make your purchases.

No healthy person need fear any dangerous consequences from an attack of lagrippe if properly treated. It is much the same as a severe cold and requires precisely the same treatment. Remain quietly at home and take Chamberlain's Cough Remedy as directed for a severe cold and a prompt and complete recovery is sure to follow. For sale by J. W. Dawson & Bro.

L. B. Heflin will sell all of his personal property and household and kitchen furniture at public sale next Thursday. Mr. Heflin has recently declined considerably in health which has drawn him to the conclusion of breaking up housekeeping. He will go to live with his son, Woodie, at Olive Hill, Carter county.

This is the time of the year when it looks a little encouraging to the country editor, when many of his honest subscribers like to square their accounts at the beginning of the new year, thus throwing some of the much-needed cash into the possession of his paw, gladdening his heart to the bottom.

Elder B. F. Wright is quite sick at his home with fever. Dr. Williams is the attending physician.

Elder A. G. Coker conducted a protracted meeting at Providence Baptist church with one addition and the church membership greatly revived.

W. J. Christopher has his new store building completed and has moved his stock of goods into it, and now proposes to sell goods cheaper than ever.

Elder J. T. Turpin, of King's Station, visited the Baptist church at this place and did the preaching Saturday and Sunday. Elder Turpin is a preacher of but twelve months experience, but proved himself to be quite an interesting sermonizer for one of his experience.

To the Public.

We are authorized to guarantee every bottle of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy to be as represented and if not satisfactory after two-thirds of the contents have been used, will refund the money to the purchaser. There is no better medicine made for lagrippe, colds and whooping cough. Price, 25 and 50c per bottle. Try it. J. W. Dawson & Bro.

Wolcott, Ind., Dec. 30, 1898. Mr. Editor of THE TIMES: Please find enclosed $1. for which please credit my subscription. Send me the paper on, we could not afford to do without the TIMES as it is the pet of our household.

Well everything in the way of business is looking up. Prices are better than they have been for the past three years; corn 30c, oats 25 and 28c. These prices make me feel like I am going to get back some of my losses that I sustained the first of last March, when some unknown person set fire to the building my implements were in, burning them, so I was compelled to buy $275 worth of implements last spring. The 11th of July my barn burned. It was filled with clover hay, and some thought the hay formed a spontaneous combustion.

My crops are much better than I expected considering the wet season.

Wishing the TIMES success, I remain

Yours truly,

W. H. Smethers.

How to Prevent Pneumonia.

You are perhaps aware that pneumonia always results from a cold or from an attack of lagrippe. During the epidemic of lagrippe a few years ago when so many cases resulted in pneumonia, it was observed that the attack was never followed by that disease when Chamberlain's Cough Remedy was used. It counteracts any tendency of a cold or lagrippe to result in that dangerous disease. It is the best remedy in the world for bad colds and lagrippe. Every bottle warranted. For sale by J. W. Dawson & Bro.

It is said that the big Watts steel plant at Middlesboro will resume operations at once, giving employment to seven hundred men.

Read letter from W. H. Smethers, of Wolcott, Ind. Mr. Smethers is an old Estill boy and his numerous friends in this community will regret to read of his misfortunes, as all wish him well.

MARRIED.

Mr. Hays Devary, of Right Angle, and Miss Millie Elkin, daughter of John W. Elkin, were Married at the bride's father at Virden Wednesday Jan. 11. The TIMES extends congratulations.

La Grippe Successfully Treated.

"I have just recovered from the second attack of la grippe this year," says Mr. Jas. A. Jones, publisher of the Leader, Mexia, Texas. "In the latter case I used Chamberlain's Cough Remedy, and I think with considerable success, only being in bed a little over two days against ten days for the former attack. The second attack I am satisfied would have been equally as bad as the first but for the use of this remedy as I had to go to bed in about six hours after being 'struck' with it, while in the first case I was able to attend to business about two days before getting 'down.'" For sale by J. W. Dawson & Bro.

Labors worst enemy is the workingman who won't work.

Lots of married men joined the army because they were tired of fighting.

A young man who had been converted by the Salvation Army, speaking from the platform, declared that all pride and self-conceit had been taken out of his heart. To prove it he said he would go down among the audience and kiss an old colored woman. As he went down the aisle, the old colored woman arose and said: "Look ahyar, brudder; yo' may ha' no pride, but I has; yo' can't kiss me."

Falschood and Truth.

A minister wished to ascertain what influence the hard times had upon the congregation, and said at the close of his sermon: "I would like everyone who is still able to pay his debts to rise from his seat." The whole congregation arose with the exception of one man. The parson then asked that all those who were unable to meet their bills to rise. Thereupon the aforesaid solitary individual got up, a hungry looking, poorly clad man, whose features revealed the terrible struggle of one fighting hopelessly against the vicissitudes of this world. The minister regarded him attentively, yet kindly. "How is it, my friend?" he said, "that you are the only one among all these people who cannot pay his debts?" "Sir, I publish a newspaper, and these, my brothers, who arose just now are all subscribers, and—," but the minister interrupted him hastily, "Let us pray."—Ex.

Simply Awful.

An exchange says a minister who frequently expressed surprise at the appearance of typographical errors in newspapers, recently had printed a program for religious services in his church. When the program was ready for press he stipulated that, in order that there should be no errors in it, the proof was to be submitted to him. It was done and corrected according to his making. After the job was delivered a friend called his attention to the following line in the closing hymn, "Jesus resigns and heaven rejoices!" The preacher nearly fainted, but he doesn't think he is half as smart as he was.

During Sherman's "March to the Sea" rations were often scarce. One day an officer found a soldier eating a persimmon, and said to him, "Don't eat that, it's not good for you." "I'm not eatin' it because it's good," he said; "I'm trying to pucker up my stomach so as to fit the rations uncle Billy Sherman's a-given us."

"How is it that Smithers lectures so successfully on the collection plan?"

"On, he does the high and lofty with his audiences, telling them that he does not want a cent from any man who cannot pay his debts. He gets liberal donations from men who were never known to give before."—Detroit Free Press.
